Head of New York Diocese Administers Rite to Cripples at Blackwell's

As the new Bishop of the New York diocese of the Protestant Episcopal Church, the Right Rev. William T. Manning yesterday performed, in the cathedral of St. John the Divine, his first ceremony of ordination and later visited Blackwell's Island for a confirmation service, as has been the custom in this diocese on Trinity Sunday since the time of the late Bishop Potter.

At the services in the cathedral, lasting from 11 a. m. until after 2 o'clock, the Right Rev. Manning, assisted by the Rev. John D. Peters, D. D., and the Rev. Van De Beek Vos, proposed by Dean Robbins; and he ordained as deacons the Rev. Charles West Manner, proposed by the Rev. John D. Peters, D. D., and the Rev. John Myers Furman, proposed by the Rev. M. Aspinwall.

Dr. Peters Preached

Bishop Manning was assisted by Dean Robbins, of the cathedral, and the Rev. John D. Peters, D. D., of the cathedral of St. Michael's Church, at Amsterdam Avenue and Ninety-ninth Street, who is also professor of Biblical exegesis at the University of the South, Sewanee, Tenn.

Dr. Peters preached the ordination sermon. He traced the development of the Christian church and expressed sympathy of the young men who were being ordained, saying that their opportunities for service were unparalleled.

"We cannot and must not restore the old conditions which existed before the war," he said. "We have three new conditions. We are doing it for the nations against Christian nations. We are at peace with the world ourselves."

"We must stand for a society in which man shall see his own self-interest first. This means in business, society and in public life. It is the condition of the world to-day."

The Urge to Travel

The instinct to seek a temporary change of environment is common to us all. But the maximum relaxation desired by the traveler can only be assured if peace of mind and freedom from worry are fellow-travelers.

The safest way to respond to the craving for new scenes to refresh the jaded brain is through the purchase of our travelers' Letters of Credit, which supply the traveler with funds in convenient form and furnish means of identification and courteous treatment the world over.

It is the desk with the patented "Lino" writing bed, which eliminates plate glass and desk blotters.

The "Lino" surface wears like iron, feels like kid and in appearance is handsome and distinctive.

It does not mar or scratch and is impervious to ink or other stains.

It does away with light reflection common to glass tops or any varnished surface, making it restful to the eye. Strikingly handsome in any office and an ideal writing surface.

Body of First U. S. Soldier to Die on German Soil Also in Flag-Draped Row

Memorial services were held yesterday at Piers 3 and 4, Hoboken, for the 5,112 men of the expeditionary forces whose bodies reached this port Friday on the Wheaton. Flag-draped coffins filled most of the floor space on the upper decks of the two piers.

Men and women in black, many of them wearing gold stars on their sleeves, crowded solemnly with the spick and span color guards, selected from the crack regiments of the New York Guard. To the thump of muffled drum, military and municipal bands which had escorted contingents from the American Legion marched in and took their places.

The men whose bodies stretched rank on rank throughout the huge bare structures had been drawn at the 27th, 77th, 78th, 79th, 80th, 81st, 82nd, 83rd, 84th, 85th, 86th, 87th, 88th, 89th, 90th, 91st,
